"Jose 'Pepin' Garcia makes millions of cigars, perhaps none finer than La Aroma de Cuba Mi Amor… This is a box-pressed cigar that burns beautifully and has a lovely woody component balanced by notes of sweet nougat and copious amounts of nuts on the palate. These cigars are not only delicious, but consistent."

Customer Review:

"Holt's often refers to Argyle as 'The Undisputed King of Value Cigars' and from my experience I must say that I agree with them. I'm amazed by the rock-bottom pricing and remarkable consistency exhibited in the last 10 boxes I've purchased. Great taste and superb construction doesn't always come with a large price-tag. Thank you Holt's for introducing me to my new go-to cigar!"

CLOSEOUT

Once upon a time, many moons ago, Camacho was a highly-regarded, up and coming cigar brand specializing in cutting-edge, full-bodied cigars. At the top of Camacho's list of full-bodied beasts was the dark, spicy Coyolar. In 2006, Camacho Coyolar received a respectable, well-deserved 88-rating from Cigar Aficionado. At that time, things were pretty much hunky-dory at Camp Camacho. Fast-forward a half-dozen years and the folks at Camacho are now singing a different type of tune. To that end, this uber-juicy closeout pretty much fell into our laps and your pals at Holt's could not be happier... While supplies last, we're bringing you boxes of the once-heralded Camacho Coyolar for a crushing 60% off MSRP. These cigars feature dark, sultry Honduran wrappers on top of a spice-laced blend of premium Honduran long-fillers. Full-bodied and robust, these cigars offer rich notes of earth and cedar along with copious amounts of spice. Enjoy Camacho's finest for as low as $2.59 per cigar. Boo-ya!

ROCKY PATEL Mulligans

Once you smoke one, you'll be hooked!

AS LOW AS $1.99 PER CIGAR

The Mulligans Legend

A few years ago, the esteemed 'RP' Brain Trust (pictured below) was preparing to launch a new cigar brand. Despite working long and hard to bring this new brand to market, they decided to abort the project in the 11th hour because they weren't 100% happy with the blend. Unfortunately, the factory had already rolled 250,000 of these cigars. What in the world was Team Patel supposed to do with a quarter-million spare cigars? Rather than panicking, Rocky stayed as cool as a cucumber... He knew that if he dialed up his pals at Holt's, his problem would be solved. After smoking the samples, we told Rocky he was nuts and that the blend was terrific. In fact, we rank this blend close to the top; about a half-notch below Rocky's finest creations such as Decade and Ocean Club. Needless to say, we took the deal and bought up every last cigar. After the dust settled, Rocky called us to express his immense personal gratitude for helping him get out of this pickle. In fact, the entire 'RP' Camp was so emphatically thankful that they sent us a jumbo-sized Holiday gift basket in the middle of the summer. The basket was filled with chocolate-covered pretzels, artisan cheeses, gourmet jelly beans; all kinds of good stuff.

We decided to call these cigars "Mulligans" because Rocky and his crew had to re-do the blend for their big, national release. Despite not making the final cut, these cigars are luxury-grade, 'RP' uber-premiums priced at an unthinkable $1.99 - $2.74 apiece! Medium-bodied in strength, these dandies feature oily Habano wrappers and a rich blend of Dominican and Nicaraguan long-fillers. The flavors are earthy, cedary and lightly spicy with a toasty finish. Enjoy savings up to 74% off MSRP!

Customer Review:

"Although Rocky Patel has some cigars in the super-premium price-range, I much prefer his $2-$3 offerings. Mulligans is my favorite Rocky Patel cigar, hands-down! Kudos to Holt's for always offering the best closeouts for the best prices."

-Brett B. from FL

The Tradition Continues…

This story seems to repeat itself like a reccuring nightmare for the Patel Boys... Originally earmarked for national distribution as a super-premium, top-shelf, luxury-brand cigar, the illustrious 'RP' Brain Trust (pictured left) decided to pull the plug on this project at the last minute because they weren't 100% satisfied with the blend. To their shock and horror, the factory had already rolled 500,000 of these cigars. Oh no, not again! What on earth was Team 'RP' going to do with half-a-million extra cigars? Take a wild guess, son… When we received the S.O.S. call from Rocky himself, we were all over this deal like white on rice. In case you haven't noticed, your pals at Holt's are gluttons for closeouts. After smoking the samples we were downright befuddled. Not only are these cigars very approachable, but we think this is one of Rocky's finest blends to date! We consider this cigar to be something along the lines of an elegant, refined hybrid between Vintage 1999 and Velvet Edition. We told Rocky that we would gladly take these cigars off his hands. We also told him that he should go out and get a new toothbrush and a tongue scraper, because this blend is a real winner! Handmade using blonde Connecticut wrappers and a regal assortment of aged Dominican and Nicaraguan long-fillers, these cigars are elegant, creamy and delicious. Mild to medium-bodied, these luxury-grade 'RP' uber-premiums are priced to fly at $2.24 - $2.99 per cigar. Save over 76% off MSRP!

Customer Review:

"I purchase these cigars from Holt's in boxes of 100 on a regular basis. Mark my word, you will not find a better cigar for the money anywhere. These cigars burn and taste like they should cost $6-$8 each. When I tell my smoking buddies the cigar their nubbing costs less than 2-bucks, they can't believe it. What a great deal!"

ROMEO Y JULIETA
HAVOC

The newest addition to the Romeo family is interesting to say the least... The name is bizarre and the packaging is rather off-putting. When you first look at this box you can't help but do a double-take and think to yourself, "Dude, you gotta be kidding me..." Despite its shortcomings, Romeo y Julieta Havoc is actually a nice cigar to smoke. Handmade in Honduras, these cigars feature Nicaraguan Habano wrappers and a rich blend of Honduran and Nicaraguan long-fillers. Medium to full-bodied, these chunky delights are earthy, cedary and leathery with a long, toasty finish. Prices start as low as $4.21 per cigar.

CLOSEOUT

Leon Jimenes 300 Series is a world-class cigar of the finest blending and construction. It never got off the ground sales-wise due to its formerly-exorbitant price. Before we got our mitts on them, these puppies were being sold for as much as $12.50 apiece. Not in our house, son! We snatched up the closeout and crushed the price down as low as $2.99 per cigar. Handmade in the Dominican Republic, these top-shelf gems don gorgeous Cameroon wrappers cloaked around a scrumptious blend of aged Dominican and Nicaraguan tobaccos. Medium-bodied in strength, these cigars boast an eventful medley of flavors including earth, oak, spices and mixed nuts. With discounts as deep as 72% off MSRP, this closeout is a stupefying value. Don't even bother checking our competitors for a better price; this jaw-dropping offer is available only at Holt's!

Customer Review:

"I first tried Leon Jimenes 300 Series at my local smokeshop about 5 years ago. I believe I paid $15 for one single. This was a great cigar then and it's an even better cigar now. When I saw that Holt's had it on closeout, I immediately jumped in for 3 boxes. After seeing what a little age has done, I plan on buying another 15 boxes before they sell out. Trust me, these cigars are terrific and the prices are unbelievable!"

MYSTERY BAG SAMPLERS

WHAT'S IN YOUR BAG?

These 10-cigar Mystery Bags are a bit of a crapshoot. When you buy and sell as many cigars as we do, you tend to accumulate a lot of random cigars you can't sell because the box they came in got damaged in-transit. Some of these bags are duds, while others are goldmines. One thing that's for certain is that no two bags are the same. Feeling lucky? Step right up. Heck, at just $1.99 per cigar, what have you got to lose?

MACANUDO

Ultimate Round

SWEEPSTAKES

Macanudo is a consistently mild cigar that's been a sales juggernaut for years. Handmade in the Dominican Republic, these cigars feature Connecticut wrappers and a mellow blend of Dominican and Mexican fillers. Macanudo Cru Royale is the newest addition to the Mac family. These cigars are medium-bodied, featuring an Ecuadorian wrapper and a richly-flavored 3-country filler blend. This is a nice option for loyal Macanudo smokers who are looking for a step-up in flavor and complexity.
